

Jamie Duffy

Jamie Duffy lives in North Attleboro, MA after growing up in Rhode Island. She graduated from North Providence High School in 2002. While there, Jamie was a 4 year starting Varsity pitcher, helping the team win the 2001 Division 1 State Championship. That year Jamie had a career best 0.97 ERA with 11 shutouts. Jamie was a first-team All-State selection her Junior and Senior years. She also spent many summers playing travel ball for the Rhode Island Psychos. She then went on to play Division 1 at the University of Rhode Island, where she was a starting shortstop. She has coaching experience at nearly every level, with previous assistant coaching positions at Bay View, Wheeler, and as a volunteer assistant for a fall season at URI.

Most recently she was the Franklin Highschool JV Coach as well as a coach for the BNB Rox 14U for the 2020-2021 season. She has also spent many years coaching in the North Providence and North Attleboro recreational and travel systems. Jamie likes to take a positive approach as an instructor/coach; building players up through confidence and knowledge. I believe players perform their best when they feel safe to make mistakes, are encouraged to try new things, and enjoy developing their skills.

Jamie is available for Softball pitching, hitting, fielding and throwing lessons.
