

Matt Callahan

Matt grew up in Attleboro MA where he was a 3 year varsity starter for the AHS Baseball team as well as a Hockomock League All Star and senior year team captain. After high school, Matt went on to play at Dean College where he was a 4 year starter with a .324 career average. Matt recently graduated from Dean with a degree in Sports Management. During his playing career he played for both the New York Collegiate Baseball team as well as the Newport Collegiate Baseball team. Looking to share his skills and develop younger players, Matt has also coached the North Attleboro Post 312 Legion team and is currently coaching the Attleboro High School Fall Baseball team. Matt describes his coaching style as a "Democratic Coaching style" - a balanced approach that puts the physical and mental side in the hands of the player. This places the accountability on the player to help them succeed to their highest level. Matt enjoys working with players looking to move to the next level of their game and work on the overall points of the game as well as their skills.
