

Emma Rohan

Emma Rohan graduated from Foxborough High School in 2019 and is currently attending Bridgewater State University where she is studying Elementary Education and Psychology. While at Foxborough, Coach Emma was a 4-year varsity starting pitcher and was named team captain her senior season. In addition to high school softball, she played club at a competitive level from 14U and competed at the 18U level for three seasons. Emma has been giving pitching lessons since she was in high school and recently joined the BNB Rox coaching staff. During the 2020-2021 season, she was one of the 10U Rox coaches and has since moved up to 12U for the 2021-2022 club season. Coach Emma enjoys working with young pitchers that are looking to build a strong foundation, as well as those who are working to fine-tune their technique and develop new pitches.

Emma is available to work with pitchers between the ages of 7 and 13.
