

Antonia Peretti

Antonia Peretti, a high school and collegiate level player brings years of experience in both playing and coaching to BNB. Antonia was a 3 year club player with Avalanche as well as a 3 year varsity catcher and 1B at OA High School. After highschool she went on to play at Framingham State University. Antonia has coached players from 8-18 over the last five years and provided lessons for players in both hitting and catching for the last four. Antonia is currently the assistant coach for the BNB Rox 14U Givens team. When asked about her approach to coaching she cites Derek Jeter - "There may be people that have more talent than you, but there's no excuse for anyone to work harder than you do." Antonia enjoys working with players willing to put the work in to better themselves.

Antonia is available for hitting, fielding, throwing and catching (position) lessons.
